

BANK OF SULLIVAN

For Immediate Release – September 1, 2017

Subject: Mallory Farrell Promoted

Bank of Sullivan continues to grow and promotes from within. Mike Hoffman, President and CEO of Bank of Sullivan announced, “We are proud to announce the promotion of Mallory Farrell to Vice President and Chief Operations Officer. Mallory has been with us since 2007 and is an asset to our bank with her wealth of knowledge and commitment to our customers”.

Farrell has her Masters of Business Administration and has worked in various positions over the years. Her new responsibilities will include overseeing several operation departments including bookkeeping, marketing and our teller area. Hoffman continued, “We already have senior managers in those areas which will be helping Mallory with the transition and development of this new position. We know that in today’s ever-changing banking environment, a streamlined organization with strong senior management will be in a position to thrive.”

Farrell is a lifelong resident of Sullivan. She is married to Ross Farrell and they are expecting their first child later this year. She enjoys the outdoors, family and being involved in the community.

Bank of Sullivan has served the needs of customers since 1895, providing financial solutions for today and always looking to the future. Bank of Sullivan has eight banking locations, including two in Sullivan, Downtown and I-44 locations, Cuba, Union, Labadie, Sunrise Beach, Pleasant Hope and Springfield, Missouri.
