Bank of Sullivan Board of Directors is pleased to announce the promotion of Kyle Roehrs, Kim Bauer, Cheri Knight, Beau Bartolotta, Josh Groom, Courtney Jacobs, Devin Arand, and Deanna Colombo. Mike Hoffman, President and CEO of Bank of Sullivan stated, “We are proud to announce these promotions. Each of these employees are an asset to our bank with their knowledge and commitment to our customers.”

Kyle Roehrs has been promoted to Network Operations Officer. He has been with Bank of Sullivan for four years as a Senior IT Technician. Roehrs has a Bachelor of Science in both Computer Science and Applied Mathematics from Fontbonne University in St. Louis. He and his wife, Kelcey and their two children, Quinn and Kamden, reside in Sullivan.

Kim Bauer has been promoted to Associate Branch Manager for our Labadie Branch. She has been with Bank of Sullivan for nearly four years. Bauer is a St. Francis Borgia graduate and received an Associate Degree at East Central College. She has been involved in the community and enjoys volunteering at events. Bauer and her daughter, Allie, reside in Union.

Cheri Knight joined the Bank of Sullivan in 2013 and oversees the retail areas of financial services and tellers at our Sunrise Beach branch. We are pleased to announce she has been promoted to Branch Operations Officer. Cheri and her husband, Joe, reside at the Lake of the Ozarks at Osage Beach, Missouri.

Beau Bartolotta came to work for Bank of Sullivan in October of 2014 and has worked in lending and loss claims. Bartolotta has been promoted to Assistant Vice President. He is a 2013 graduate of the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, Finance and Banking. Bartolotta and his wife, Jenica, and their son, Walton, are Sullivan residents.

Josh Groom came to work for Bank of Sullivan in February 2014, assisting customers with their day-to-day transactions and lending needs. In 2014, he moved into a loan coordinator position; in 2016 he was given lending authority; and, in 2019 he has been promoted to Assistant Vice President. He is a 2010 graduate of Cuba High School. He is a member and past president of the Cuba Chamber of Commerce and enjoys doing volunteer work in the community. Presently he leads the bank employees in preparing bags filled with kid-friendly, nutritious food for local school children through the Friday Backpacks for Cuba program. Groom and his wife, Taylor, reside in St. James and are expecting their first child, Laney Mae, in June.

Courtney Jacobs joined the bank in 2013 and during her time with the bank, she has done a variety of duties, but has been in lending in Union for most of that time. She has over 11 years in the banking industry. Jacobs has been promoted to Loan Officer at our Union branch. She resides in Union, is a graduate from Union high school and is engaged to Nick Meyer with an October 2020 wedding planned.

Devin Arand worked for Bank of Sullivan prior to college, but came back after college to train in lending. He holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Business, with a concentration on Finance from Fontbonne University. Arand works out of the Union location and has been promoted to Loan Officer. Arand is a member of the Knights of Columbus and Kiwanis and resides in Union.

Deanna Colombo is one of our Financial Service Representatives at our Union Branch has been promoted to Operations Assistant. Colombo has an Associate degree in Accounting. This promotion adds additional responsibilities in the teller area. She has been with Bank of Sullivan for three and a half years. Colombo and her husband, Joe, and their three children, Dalton, Ali and Skylar reside in Union.

“These employees are among some of the most dependable and knowledgeable people on our staff,” said Hoffman, when making the promotions announcement. “Their experience and wealth of knowledge are of great benefit to our organization and the communities they serve and to our customers. We are proud to announce all their promotions.”
